

Resources at Lane Library

All of the following resources are available from the Lane Library's main web page at www.library.armstrong.edu

GIL

This database provides access to the catalog of books, videos, DVD's, journals and other media available in the library.

GIL Express

Covers the vast catalog of materials available at schools throughout the University of Georgia System. Through GIL Express, books can be requested from any participating institution and usually arrive within 4 days of the request.

If an item cannot be found in either GIL or GIL Express, you can submit an Inter-Library Loan and library staff will find and get the material sent to the Lane Library for you. The form for this is located at the ILL Request Form button at the bottom navigation bar on the library web page.

Periodicals Holdings List

Includes all of the journals and magazines available in both print hardcopy and through electronic database subscription. The bound, back-issues of journals are arranged by call number and housed on the 2nd floor; recent issues are available alphabetically by title and are located on the 1st floor.

Academic Search Premiere

Provides full-text access to articles for over 1,300 journals as well as abstracts for 3,000 additional titles. Accessible from the GALILEO link on the library's web page. At the GALILEO main page, type ASP into the "Find Databases By Name" box not the "Quick Search" box. Also available in Spanish.

ProQuest Newspapers

Accessible in much the same fashion as Academic Search Premiere and available in 14 languages. Provides full text access to 10 major U.S. newspapers, including New York Times Book Review and New York Times Magazine.

Jstor

Accessed through the "Additional Databases" link on the library's web page and available in 8 languages this database provides full text access to archived holdings for over 600 titles. Results are a minimum of 5 years old.

Good luck with your research!
