ARMSTRONG STATE COLLEGE
GREEN FLEETWOOD
HISTORY 300
SUMMER QUARTER 1981
BY MARY ANN F. EDENFIELD
ABSTRACT

Green Fleetwood, 1810-1856 was a river pilot, planter, and upper who in 1832 married Mary Morgan of Effingham County. They had seven children, five boys and two girls. Green and family lived on Houston Street before buying Lot #22, Columbia Ward (currently 128 Habersham Street) in 1850 and finally in 1854, building a house.
GREEN FLEETWOOD

It seems that to tell a life story even one that there is little concrete facts with which to put meat on the bones, one needs to begin at the probable beginning. And so I will with a note from the records of a living descendant of Green Fleetwood.

On the paternal side, the Fleetwood family was well known in England for many years during the reigns of the Tudor and Stuart monarchs. Members of the family came to America in the seventeenth century, and settled in Virginia, Maryland, and what is now North Carolina. The founder of the Georgia branch, John Fleetwood a Revolutionary soldier came from North Carolina about 1750. He married Anne Boyd of Screven County. They subsequently moved to Savannah where Green was born January 16, 1810.

"Green became a pilot and master mariner and apparently prospered in his profession owning a large townhouse facing Columbia Square, and a plantation on White Marsh Island near Savannah where he died November 3, 1856."... Although a good bit of the above is quotes from the records of Green's great grandson, I hope to shed some more light on his life through some research done before I saw the records.

The years 1810-1831 were I am reasonably sure busy ones for Green but I found no records to confirm what he was doing. I assume that, based on future records, he was learning his profession - river or branch pilot. But December 9, 1832 he married Mary Morgan of Effingham County. Mary came from a family of Salzburgers and was a fourth generation Morgan. The years 1833-34 are again undisturbed, and in 1833 Green and Mary have their first of seven children - Thomas M. (Madison). Thomas became a pilot..."
Laura M. and had three children—Laura H., Thomas W., and Lawrence W.

There is a little more activity during 1836. Green either advertised with the branch pilots or received notice of letters (in those days the Post Office listed in the newspapers mail to be picked up) through the newspaper Georgian. In August of 1836 Green bought for $1,200 Lot 7, 27 in Green Ward (sold for $1,500) from Willink.

In 1837 the Green Fleetwoods were blessed with a second son James M. According to the only source that mentioned James he was also a river pilot and became Captain of the pilot boat "Wildie". 1838–39 found Green still receiving notice of letters through the Daily Georgian and advertising his profession. But 1840 brought the birth of their third child, and son William Henry. And it is through Will H. (as I have come to call him) that I found a living (one of many) descendant of Green Fleetwood. For Will H. also a river pilot and captain married Catherine E. Gross in 1866. They had four children: Charles Green, Herbert Marshall, Edgar Allen and Lillian. In 1840 Green also bought a Negro boy named Henry age 16 for $675 from McDonald, and an indenture in Green Ward to a James Crew. Green also shows up in the 1840 census.

The years 1841–42 are just more ads and letters in the newspapers Georgian and Savannah Daily Republican. And 1843 was a no news (that I found) year. But 1844 brought the birth of Green's first daughter and fourth child—Mary L. Followed by no news in 1845 and in 1846 the birth of their final daughter and fifth child Laura C. Also in 1845 Green had dealings with a J.W. Decandy (Grantee) of $1,000 for lots 6 & 9 in Anson Ward.

I believe the reasons for no news in the preceding years as well as 1847 and 1848 was lack of time to actually research all of the data\textsuperscript{27} that I found.

The 1849 City Census or Directory\textsuperscript{28} besides saying once again that Green was a pilot also gives an address - 24 Houston Street.

Presumably\textsuperscript{29} still on 24 Houston Street in 1850 (living)
Green bought\textsuperscript{30} Lot # 22 in Columbia Ward from Andrea Low for $ 1,200.
And Green also shows up in the 1850 Chatham County Census with his wife (Mary) and five children.

The papers\textsuperscript{31} on the purchase of Lot # 22 indicate that Green and Andrea Low were partners. But to what extent and purpose their partnership was I have no idea.

The year 1851 saw the birth of Green and Mary's sixth child a son, John W.\textsuperscript{32} (John W. only lived 14 years before dying on October 13, 1865.\textsuperscript{33} ) This was followed by two years of unknown activity and then in 1854 the birth of G. F.'s seventh and last child, a son George S.\textsuperscript{34}. George never married and according to the City Directories\textsuperscript{35} his profession was bookkeeper. And according to his will he left a good deal of his estate\textsuperscript{35} to an Elizabeth Cohen.

Also in 1854 Green built\textsuperscript{36} a house on Lot # 22 Columbia Ward.
The address until 1877 was 35 Habersham\textsuperscript{37} when it was changed to 165 Habersham. The original building\textsuperscript{38} still stands and houses the firm of Gunn & Meyerhoff Architects.

I am sorry to say that again I was wrong concerning 1855 and this is most unfortunate because the next year 1856 Green Fleetwood died.\textsuperscript{39} The obituary\textsuperscript{10} itself (micro-film) was unreadable but the account in the newspaper digest\textsuperscript{11} gave a brief notice and an invitation to his funeral (5:00 Nov. 4, 1856.). The Laurel Grove Cemetery Records\textsuperscript{32} gave a little more details. Green was only 45 years, 10 months and 26 days old, and he was residing at Columbia Square but but died on Whitemarsh Island.

Green's will which was proved November 14, 1853 and lists Mary Fleetwood as his executor. She is to have everything for her life time but if she remarries only 1/7th. The complete list can be read in the Probate Court. But here are some of the outstanding assets besides the property in Columbia Ward; a plantation on Whitemarsh Island, shares of three railroad companies, and the lot in Laurel Grove Cemetery.

While I know that the preceding was not a full and wholly accurate account of the life of Green Fleetwood I hope that it will serve as a guide to further knowledge of the man. The following epilogue that I am including will add some thoughts of my own and those of a descendant of Green. It will also include bits of information that I did not either know enough about to incorporate in the main paper or didn't know how.
"The first record of any Fleetwoods in America was of Alexander who came over in 1633 but not to Georgia, another branch came to Georgia." This is what is known as starting at the beginning as near as possible. Also here is another piece of information on the same source. "Colonel Charles Fleetwood, one of the reputable Puritan Colonels married a daughter of Oliver Cromwell, I believe John Green's father is Charles's brother) later Lord General and Lord Lieutenant of Ireland."

C. G. Fleetwood, Jr. said that the 250 acre plantation that been had on Whitemarsh Island was planted in Sea Island Cotton.

id when asked how Green made his living he laughingly said, "shipping, robbing, and planting." He said that Green was quite well-off.

I also inquired as to Green's religion, and Mr. Fleetwood said heathen" then went on to say that although John's family (probably Green's brother) went to the First Baptist Church he believed that Green was probably of the old family religion Presbyterian.

Mr. Fleetwood also said that even though he hadn't found the concrete link between his family of Fleetwoods and the family in the Book Chronicles of Fleetwood House he was reasonably sure they were related. One reason is the family name first (George) and last Cohan or Caster. Another tidbit from Mr. Fleetwood, "there are relatives in Sweden."

These last tidbits are one; transcribing the court house records, I believe Green bought property for investment. And from cemetary records showing deaths of Fleetwoods in New York, none of the family was/is probably there. There are a lot of Fleetwoods buried in the same plots that I did not have time to connect. These notes are for future's sake ..(H.A.F.)

To last minute notes, first Will Fleetwood, the brother of Charles C., Jr. said that there was a picture of Green in his insurance office; second Charles C. said something to the effect that the Island plantation was maybe near Turner's Rock.

1. Are you directly related to Green Fleetwood through one of his children? How?

2. I saw a book titled Fleetwood House - the family names were evident, George, Charles, etc., the period was 17th & 18th century - is this the same family?

II. Can you fill in about Green's life?

IV. The Fleetwoods in the Savannah City Directories - are they related?

IV. Who were Green's parents?

IV. Where were they from?

II. Are any Fleetwoods river pilots now?

I received very definite answers for most of these. The rest are the yes and no type answers.
