William M. Leigh

William Leigh was born in Bulloch County, Georgia about December 29, 1804.¹ He was a merchant by trade dealing in wood and groceries with his partner Jonah Bird.²

Little is known of his life before the early 1830's. He married Sarah Shipman of New Jersey, March 2, 1831. They were married by Stephen A. Mealy, pastor of the Lutheran Church.³

There were three girls born of this marriage. Amanda Malvina was born in 1832 and died November 7, 1833 of Croup and Sore Throat.⁴ Mary A. was born December, 1833 and Sarah J. in 1835. His wife Sarah died October 7, 1835 of "Child Bed" leaving Mr. Leigh with the two girls, one just an infant. Amanda and Sarah are buried at Laural Grove Cemetery. Sarah Leigh was 30 years old at the time of her death.⁵

In December of this year (1835) William dissolved his partnership with Jonah Bird. In the December 11, 1835 issue of the Georgian appeared this notice:

Disolution
The Copartnership hereto existing under the firm of Bird and Leigh is this day dissolved by mutual consent. Persons having demands against said firm are requested to present them for settlement and those indebted will please make payment to either of the undersigned."

Jonah Bird
William M. Leigh

After this article appeared the writer could find no other occupation for Leigh except merchant.

On July 29, 1841, Leigh married Susan Thompson of Beaufort District, South Carolina. This marriage ended with the death of Susan in December, 1842. As no records were found in Vital Records at the Chatham County Health Department, it is assumed that she died in South Carolina or at least out of Savannah. The Georgian issue of January 26, 1843 carried a paragraph of her death describing her as an "exemplary Member of the Baptist Church and her conduct through life was such as became the Character of a Christian." There were no children of this union.

In May, 1848, Leigh purchased from Henry Dickerson Lot number 42 of Crawford Ward. "bounded on the North by Perry Street West by Lot number 41, South by a street and East by Lot number 43." This lot was sixty feet in length and ninety feet in depth. The price was four hundred dollars and the ground rent to the Mayor and Aldermen was nineteen dollars and forty-four cents a year. Included in the price were the houses, outhouses, stable yard, gardens, and all buildings, edifices, encumbrances and easements. This property stayed in his name until his death in 1861 when it passed on to his adopted son at his majority.
Mary Leigh married Thomas Naylor April 10, 1851. Their son William Leigh Naylor died at age 18 months in 1858. Mary died December 5, 1867 at age 34 of Cholera.

William married Mary Cox (nee Threadcraft) April 2, 1853. Mary was a widow with 2 children, a girl Sarah about 11 years old, and a son John who was around 7. William eventually adopted John and changed his name to John David Leigh. Mary Cox was born in Savannah and lived there until her death in 1885 at age 74.

Sarah J. Leigh married Benjamin Thompson of South Carolina, April 28, 1859. As no further information could be found about her the writer had to conclude she and her husband moved out of the state to live.

William Leigh died May 21, 1861 of "Liver Complaint". He is buried in the Laurel Grove Cemetery Lot # 638 in the same grave as his wife Sarah and their child Amanda. Leigh was 56 years old when he died.

His Estate at his death was valued at $17,757.96. Number 42 Crawford Ward was valued at $2000.00. A copy of his will, property list and valuation is found in the Appendix.

John Leigh lived until 1922. He was an accountant by trade. He and his wife Eliza had 4 children, but all preceded their parents in death: Norman age 4, 1880; Arthur, age 1 age 1885; Frank age 24 days, 1886; and Georgia, 1891, age 5 months. Eliza died in 1891, age 34. All are buried at Laurel Grove Cemetery Lot number 2097.
